Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

As we continue our journey through Lent, today's reading from Exodus enumerates the commandments God's people were to live by as part of the covenant relationship God established with them at Mount Sinai. The first three commandments shape our relationship with God, and the remaining seven shape our relationship one another. Jesus summarized these with the great commandment: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself. Each of us loves God. But maybe there are times when he doesn't really, always come first. The daily distractions of our lives can end up receiving all our attention. We may lack energy and might be running low on the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and so rather than pray, we watch a show or spend time on social media. Rather than share our faith with a family member, well, we'll find pretty much anything else to do instead. God, and the things of God, seem to take a back seat at times in our lives. Thank goodness we never take a back seat for him!

Scripture Readings

First Reading: In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me." (Ex 20,1-3)

Psalm: Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. (Ps 19)

Second Reading: We proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. (1 Cor 1, 23-24)

Gospel: Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." (Jn 2, 19)

Retreat into the Passion of Jesus

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

Mientras continuamos nuestro viaje durante la Cuaresma, la lectura de hoy del Éxodo enumera los mandamientos que el pueblo de Dios debía seguir como parte de la relación de pacto que Dios estableció con ellos en el monte Sinaí. Los primeros tres mandamientos dan forma a nuestra relación con Dios, y en los siete restantes dan forma a nuestra relación mutua. Jesús resumió estos con el gran mandamiento: Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, alma y mente, y amarás a tu prójimo como ti mismo. Cada uno de nosotros ama a Dios. Pero tal vez hay momentos en que no lo hace. De verdad, siempre es lo primero. Las distracciones diarias de nuestras vidas pueden terminar recibiendo toda nuestra atención. Puede que nos falte energía y estemos corriendo tenemos pocos dones del Espíritu Santo y, por eso, en lugar de orar, observamos una manera de pasar el tiempo en las redes sociales. En lugar de compartir nuestra fe con los miembros de la familia, bueno, encontramos prácticamente cualquier otra cosa que hacer. Dios y las cosas de Dios parecen pasar a veces a un segundo plano en nuestras vidas. ¡Gracias a Dios que nunca pasamos a un segundo plano para él!
