Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

Division and separation are never good things, unless we're doing math problems or flying formation aircraft. Today's Scriptures speak to us of reconciliation and reunification. The prophet Ezekiel offers hope to the people of Israel who have been forced out of their homelands. They have been scattered into foreign countries and separated from their loved ones. The Lord will bring them together, never again to be divided. He will cleanse them from sin, and they will live on the land that has been promised to them. Most important, the Lord says: My dwelling shall be with them. We enter Holy Week in a world that still suffers division, scattered peoples, and transgressions of every kind. But for the people of God, who are in the world but not of it, this is a time to give thanks for the gift of the Savior who fulfilled the promise of God. We are reconciled to the Father. He has gathered us from the distant lands and united us in Christ. And we live in the hope that one day we will live with him in the eternal sanctuary of heaven.

Scripture Readings

First Reading: I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame. (Is 50,7)

Psalms: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Ps 22)

Second Reading: He humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him. (Phil 2,8-9)

Gospel: They brought him to the place of Golgotha—which is translated Place of the Skull. (Mk 15,22)

Experience Schola: The High School Summer Program at the Abbey!

Rising sophomore high school students and older: Now is the time to plan for your summer! Introducing Schola, the high school summer program at Belmont Abbey College. Parents, this is a program that will have your students exploring classic literature and philosophy while enjoying daily prayer life and amazing outdoor activities. Rooted in our Catholic tradition, Schola offers an introduction to the Socratic method, trips to the U.S. Whitewater Center, hiking, and of course, appreciation of the good, the true, and the beautiful. Take advantage of this unforgettable experience! You'll grow in wisdom, critical thinking and make great friendships. This is the summer experience that will prepare you for a successful college career and life. Schola 2024 will be held July 14-20 at Belmont Abbey College. Learn more at www.bac.edu/schola.

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

La división y la separación nunca son cosas buenas, a menos que estemos haciendo matemáticas problemas o volar aviones en formación. Las Escrituras de hoy nos hablan de reconciliación y reunificación. El profeta Ezequiel ofrece esperanza a los pueblo de Israel que ha sido expulsado de sus países de origen. Han sido esparcidos en países extranjeros y separados de sus seres queridos. El Señor los reunirá para no volver a estar nunca más. dividido. Él los limpiará del pecado y habitarán en la tierra. que se les ha prometido. Lo más importante es que el Señor dice: Mi la morada estará con ellos. Entramos en Semana Santa en un mundo que aún sufre división, dispersion pueblos, y transgresiones de toda clase. Pero para el pueblo de Dios, que están en el mundo pero no son de él, esta es una corbata para agradecer el regalo del Salvador que cumplió la promesa de Dios. Estamos reconciliados con el Padre. Él nos ha reunido desde tierras lejanas y nos ha unido en Cristo. Y vivimos con la esperanza de que algún día viviremos con él en el Santuario eterno del cielo.
