Our Mission Statement

Our Lady of the Highways, a Parish grounded in faith and service, seeks to be a people unified as a Catholic community that embraces and enjoys a wide cultural diversity. We rely on the Holy Spirit to guide us in our growth and in our Christian witness to the community. We are especially committed to promoting vocations both to the priesthood and religious life, and sacred married life.

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

"The joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ joy is constantly born anew." These words from Pope Francis, penned in the first year of his pontificate, truly were an apostolic exhortation to all of us in the church: understand that the Good News of Jesus Christ is one of abundant joy. We are also sent forth in this joy. It drives us to accompany those who feel cast in the shadow of sin. It shows us the way to be God's merciful presence in the world. It compels us to be with those who are suffering or in sorrow. It is what gives us strength to be with those who feel emptiness or loneliness for whatever reason. When we do these things, something new is created. To follow God's way is to renew ourselves in the joy of the Gospel. We are disciples with joy to bring. To truly evangelize in this world, we must start by bringing joy to others. This joy is inexhaustible.

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

La alegría del Evangelio llena los corazones y las vidas de todos los que se encuentran con Jesús. Quienes aceptan su oferta de salvación se liberan del pecado, la tristeza, el vacío interior y la soledad. Con Cristo, la alegría renace constantemente. Estas palabras del Papa Francisco, escritas en el primer año de su pontificado, fueron una verdadera exhortación apostólica para todos nosotros en la Iglesia: comprendamos que la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo es una alegría abundante. También somos enviados en esta alegría. Nos impulsa a acompañar a quienes se sienten a la sombra del pecado. Nos muestra el camino para ser la presencia misericordiosa de Dios en el mundo. Nos impulsa a estar con quienes sufren o están tristes. Es lo que nos da fuerza para estar con quienes sienten vacío o soledad por cualquier motivo. Cuando hacemos estas cosas, se crea algo nuevo. Seguir el camino de Dios es renovarnos en la alegría del Evangelio. Somos discípulos con alegría que llevar. Para evangelizar verdaderamente en este mundo, debemos comenzar por llevar alegría a los demás. Esta alegría es inagotable.

Scripture Readings

First Reading: In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." When they had gathered together they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven." (Acts 1:1-11)

Psalms: God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord. (Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9)

Second: Brothers and sisters: May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him. May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might: which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way. (Ephesians 1:17-23)

Gospel: Jesus said to his disciples: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high." Then he led them out as far as Bethany, raised his hands, and blessed them. As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven. They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and they were continually in the temple praising God. (Luke 24:46-53)
